

FRANKLIN COUNTY MUNICIPAL COURT
SMALL CLAIMS DIVISION
HOW TO REVIVE A DORMANT JUDGMENT

What is a dormant judgment?

A judgment becomes dormant if no action is taken to enforce it for a period of five (5) years. When a judgment is dormant no interest accrues and no collections proceedings can go forward until the judgment is revived.

The Judgment Creditor (the person who has the judgment) may file a motion to revive the judgment any time within ten (10) years after the judgment becomes dormant. If the court grants the motion the judgment is revived and the Judgment Creditor can take steps to collect the judgment. The judgment will become dormant again in five years if no action is taken to collect.

How do I revive a dormant judgment?

To revive a dormant judgment the Judgment Creditor can take the following steps:

1. Complete a "Motion to Revive Dormant Judgment" form. You will need the date the judgment was filed and the date the judgment became dormant (five years after the last action to enforce the judgment was taken).
2. Complete the Instructions to the Clerk and Instructions for Service of Summons and select the type of service you are requesting.
3. File the motion with the court. The cost to file the motion is $30.00 for up to three defendants.

The Clerk will prepare a summons and send a copy of the motion to the Judgment Debtor. The Revivor will not be approved until service is completed. The Judgment Debtor has 28 days from the date when the motion is served to respond. If the Judgment Debtor responds to the motion, the case will be referred to a judge for consideration.

What happens if the debtor does not respond to the motion?

If the Judgment Debtor does not respond by the 31st day after service, you may file the "Entry for Revivor of Judgment" with the Clerk of Court on the 3rd floor. To obtain a copy of the Judge's signed Entry, enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope with the Entry.

To determine the date the Judgment Debtor was served, you can view your case docket using your case number at: www.fcmcclerk.com.

What do I do if the court revives the judgment?

Once the judgment is revived you can start one of the collection proceedings available through the court.
